“Partnering With Your Management Company — Setting Expectations”

This seminar is intended to identify and address the relationship between the management team and the Board of Directors. The intent is to educate homeowners on how to partner with management to be more productive and, thereby, enhance community spirit, function and property values.

This seminar will review Board expectations of the manager and the role of the management team. To help set the appropriate expectations for both sides, the management contract will be reviewed as well as common industry practices and ethical standards. To conclude, the seminar will discuss the considerations and realities of changing management teams.

Cost: $20.00 per person. Pre-registration is required. First come, first served— space limited!
